Don't Underestimate What God Can Do

Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many? -John 6:9 NIV

Encouragement

A little in Jesus' hands can feed a multitude.

I'm sure you know the story: Jesus wants to feed a crowd of 5,000. The only food for miles around is a little boy's snack of two small fish and five barley loaves. The facts say there is no way that such a meager amount of food could feed thousands of people. But it did! And there was even more left over than when they started.

Whenever I think of this story in John 6, I am reminded to never underestimate what God can do.

I know my skills, knowledge, and abilities alone are not nearly enough to do what God is calling me to do. The people I want to help need so much, and I have so little...until I put it in Jesus' hands and allow Him to use me for His glory.

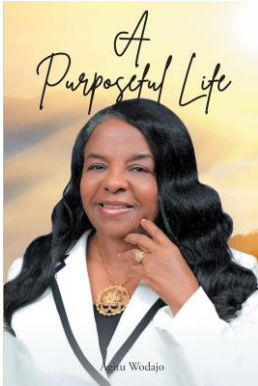

Our resources and wisdom may be limited, but God's aren't. Do not underestimate what God can and wants to do through your life. He wants to use the gifts, the skills, the resources, the talents, the education, and the opportunities He has entrusted to you in a mighty way.

Prayer:

Dear God, please use me. I surrender my gifts and talents to you. Multiple them to impact many lives. Amen.

Your College Student Needs Your Prayers by Monica Renahan

No mom has discovered the perfect plan to prepare a child for college. But, if you read stories from moms about what they needed, or what they weren't ready for, you'll give yourself a valuable edge. As our students try handling things, we think they know about, we realize how much we never taught them... and how much they're not quite ready to tackle. Help them by sending prayers their way before they face the struggles ahead. Be brave and let go but be ready for the learning curve they will need on independence, adulting, responsibilities, choices, and new challenges.

About the author Writing "Your College Student Needs Your Prayers" and the blog "Life As A College Mom 101" kept Monica busy over the past few years. When she's not writing, family comes first. Her husband, Jim, and daughters, Sarah and Marie, fill her life with smiles. Ask her about why she writes what she does, and she'll tell you, "I couldn't find a book that helped me when I faced the challenges of college parenting. So, I wrote down everything people told me that helped me. Now I want to share that with other moms."

Things are Subject to Change

by Karen McMullin

Things are subject to change.

Seasons change. Jobs change. Relationships change.
We need to have the gift to let go and embrace the change.

Change can be growth and change can be hard. You were created with the ability to do hard things.

Ecc 3: 1 To everything there is a season, A time for every purpose under heaven

In some seasons we face there is a time to let go, to make room for the next season. As we approach the season of autumn which is also called fall due to the falling leaves.

In some areas there are great changes of color before the leaves fall. In my area of Texas, USA lots of trees don't change colors to drop. And lots of trees don't release their leaves, they are evergreen trees.

In our lives, there are some things that are supposed to change and others that are not. Children finish school and go on to work or college. Now that is a big change and requires letting go on both sides. A smooth letting go will nurture the next stage in the relationship, as we want to keep the relationships alive, just at a different level.

For the Love of Rhett by Maribelle McCrea

When your life is as delicate as a house of cards, you perfect the art of dodging gusts that threaten to send it crumbling.

Without warning, like a tornado of excitement and whirlwind love, Rhett burst into my life, flipping everything upside down in the most exhilarating way imaginable.

Joined by his extraordinary family, they welcomed me into their whimsical circle with open arms, a place I clung to like a kid to candy (because, honestly, it was sweeter than a sugar rush).

About the author Maribelle McCrea is a fourth-generation Atlanta native living just south of the city in a little town with 100 miles of golf cart paths. She loves all things Southern and wishes she could speak with that old, Southern Georgia accent and say, "I do declare!" and feel faint about things.

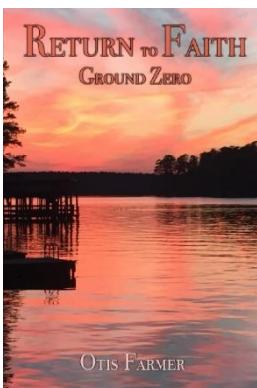

She's a finalist for Best Romance Novel in the Amadjinn Awards for 2022 with the entry for Southern Mommas A Tale by Tallulah Louise.

Return to Faith/Ground Zero by James Otis Farmer

A small town pastor survives a tragedy that rocks him to his core. He no longer believes in God. He resigns from his crumbling church, jumps into his antique truck determined to drive around the country. Thirty-miles out of town, God changes the former pastor's direction, sending him on an odyssey he never dreamed he would embark. What truths will he learn about himself, and God? Oh, the places we will go, and the miracles we will behold as we follow a broken pastor on his hopeful return to his abandoned faith.

About the author A native of Piedmont North Carolina, Otis Farmer is passionate about writing and other artistic endeavors. He has been rewarded beyond belief by working with the special needs community, teaching art and pottery. If he could live his life over he would fly fighter jets off aircraft carriers. After the Navy, he would fly a Gulfstream G-V all over the world for NASA, while continuing to write and create. A love of nature and God's amazing planet keeps his roving heart longing for his next exciting adventure, where a future story may be inspired.

Don't Settle for a Fall: Getting Primed to Finish the Race by Debra J. Salter Smith

Don't Settle For A Fall introduces people at every level of life to the kingdom of heaven and its creator; God. It explains the divine purpose and make up (structure) of the church and its call to provide a (spiritual) community that teaches, demonstrates and promotes the grace, mercy and love of God. Ultimately, this book inspires, encourages and motivates its readers to connect, re-connect and/or stay connected to God, our Lord and giver of life.

BUY NOW

About the author Debra J. Salter Smith began her Christian walk during her teenage years in which she was determination to experience and know God for herself. This has presented a long road of learning, enlightenment, frustration, discouragement, sadness, joy, excitement, and fulfillment. Despite the numerous challenges and obstacles, Debra remains committed to doing the will of God for her life. As the world becomes more chaotic, she feels an urgency to generate a greater understanding of who God is, what the Bible says and promises, and how to apply the principles of God's Word for living a Godly life. Debra now co-pastors Divine Destiny Ministries with her spouse of 25 years in Columbus, Ohio.

Roadsigns in an Awkward Age by Alan E. Stewart

I hope that in reading this collection of poems you will find some peace and hope through a relationship with our Savior, Jesus. This book is not about me but about the words that I have been given.

Expressions from the Heart: A Collection of Poems, Prayers, and Thoughts
by Mae Bertha Paul Powers

The book is a collection of poems, prayers, and thoughts the author has composed over the years to convey that life in its fullest meaning comes in having a saving personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Expressions from the Heart is a collection of poems, prayers, and thoughts that seeks to show that 2700 "experiencing all aspects of life from the perspective of Christ is what gives meaning, joy, and 2701 fulfillment to our lives even in the midst of life's most difficult and darkest times." It seeks to relay 2702 that all of life, no matter what it is, good, bad, and everything in between, is all in His hands. "For in 2703 Him we live, and move, and have our being" (Acts 17:28a, KJV).

About the author Ms. Powers has been writing inspirational poems, prayers and thoughts since childhood expressing her love for Christ and sharing it with others. Two of the selections from her book was previously published in conjunction with works of others by International Library of Poetry . SEASONS of LIFE published in 1989 in the THROUGH the LOOKING Glass works and NO AUTISM in HEAVEN published in 2006 in the TIMELESS VOICES works.

Becoming a Miracle Worker by Bonnie Nack Ed. D.

Miracles are designed to restore the mind to its natural state as it was created by God. God is Love, therefore Love is our natural state. In Becoming a Miracle Worker, author Bonnie Nack clarifies the unique meaning of miracles in A Course in Miracles, explains how they are done and encourages the student to become a Miracle Worker. Nack shows how A Course in Miracles can give anyone an understanding of how to do miracles. She explains the importance of the idea that the miracle worker must take full responsibility for everything that he experiences in his mind, and ask the Holy Spirit to transform into Love, anything negative that appears there. Uplifting and inspirational, Nack shares her wisdom based on the course principles and her own insight gained throughout years of study, practice, and teaching. Praise for Becoming a Miracle Worker Bonnie Nack is a skilled writer, clear and easy to read and she has an in-depth understanding of the teaching of A Course in Miracles. I enjoy her smooth, unpretentious style, her use of stories to illustrate her points, and her ability to hold the readers attention. Jon Mundy, PhD, Author, Living A Course in Miracles

About the author Bonnie Nack Ed. D. is a retired psychologist with more than twenty five years experience in community mental health. She has taught A Course in Miracles in various venues for the past ten years and written many articles for Miracles Magazine. She has written two other books, Unlocking the Secret of Miracles in A Course in Miracles, and Thinking About Thinking which describes in layman's terms how the mind works. She has another book in progress entitled, Beyond Forgiveness – Spiritual Awakening.

Adoration

by Jodie Wolfe

On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Matthew 2:11 (NIV)

So much of the story of the birth of Jesus Christ involves adoration. Dictionary.com defines it as, "to regard with the utmost esteem, love, and respect; honor; to pay divine honor to; worship." The angels praised God as they announced our Savior's birth to the shepherds. The shepherds spread the word to whomever would listen to them. Both Simeon and Anna worshipped God for Jesus' birth as well, when the baby was brought to the temple. The wise men traveled a long distance to give Him gifts and worship Him. Notice the common theme?

Take time this Christmas season to stop and adore Jesus Christ who came to the world as a baby to provide a way for us to spend eternity with Him and His Father. Read through Luke 1-3 and Matthew 1-2. If you don't know him, admit you're a sinner and ask Him to forgive you and fill your heart. He's the best decision and gift you can receive.

Wooing Gertrude (Burrton Springs Brides)

Peace has been elusive for most of Gertrude Miller's life, especially under the oppressiveness of an overbearing mother.

She takes matters into her own hands and sends for a potential husband, while also opening her own dress shop. Gertrude hopes to build a future where she'll find peace and happiness.

Will either of them ever be able to find peace?

HEAVEN'S PORCH

by Robin Ayscue

From on my porch in Heaven,
I look out over the Crystal Sea,
My heart filled with the Gift of Abundance,
My Spirit so happy in eternity,

I can't remember the problems of life,
The turmoil, the pain, the loss,
The bitter words, the painful tears,
Because Jesus paid all the cost,

I watch the endless Light of Heaven,
Sparkle on the water's waves,
And feel the brush of the Holy Spirit
As He gently passes by my way,

His Peace, His Joy, and Endless Love,
He showers on me as He moves,
And my heart and soul offer Him Praise,
It is the least that I can do,

As I sit on my porch in Heaven,
Watching a rainbow fill the sky,
The colors are more brilliant,
Then any I've dreamed in my earthly life,

A smile that never leaves my face,
Causes joyful tears to fill my eyes,
What a Glorious place is Heaven,
Where Jesus never leaves my side.

Does your heart feel discouraged? Do you feel the world is spinning out of control? Does your mind feel confused by all that you see happening? Then daydream with author Robin Ayscue about Heaven. Enter into the Heavenly Gates and walk down the Streets of Gold where you will encounter the Magnificent Presence of God. Bow down before God's Majestic Throne, and experience peace and love as you breathe in celestial air. The prose in the following pages will draw your heart and mind towards Heaven and the tremendous Love of God that draws each one of us.

About the author Robin Ayscue's heart is to glorify God with her life and minister to others with her writing as God has ministered to her. Robin is currently the author of five books. Secret Places of the Heart, Melodies from the Chamber, Songs of the Sunrise, and The Grace Garden. The soon-to-be-released, Heavenly Wedding Day will be the fifth in her, "Secret Heart Places," series. When not doing her passion for writing, she enjoys redecorating the home she grew up in, traveling to Secret Heart Places, photography, Bible Study, gardening, and of course, reading.

Create Digital Planners

The big problem with launching a digital product was by the time I finally got the product funnel, sales page, ads, emails and social posts all set up, months had passed, and I had spent WAY more on help than I should have and I was literally so STRESSED out!!

It should not be this hard.

What if you could quickly design a digital workbook, planner or journal in the matter of minutes including choosing fonts, color palettes, pages and styles?

What if that quick digital product also came with suggested email copy, ad copy for promotion along with social media post templates and a promotion schedule?

Oh, and what if it all took less than 20 minutes?

Yup!! It works. I just tried it... and I fell in love... ha!
